

Meet 14 Guys Who Are Saving the World

These men are inspiring kids, beautifying cities and improving our health. Did we mention they're also quite easy on the eyes?

O, The Oprah Magazine | July 07, 2011

Jack Johnson

Why we're fans: The singer-songwriter's touring profits go to his Johnson Ohana Charitable Foundation for environmental and social initiatives. Plus, he travels on a tour bus that runs on biodiesel fuel and has a concert rider that includes requests for compact fluorescent light bulbs and recycling bins.
